STOP 1

Jvari Monastery

Your day begins with a private transfer from Tbilisi to Jvari Monastery, a sixth-century Georgian Orthodox monastery perched high above Mtskheta. From the top you look straight down on the point where the Mtkvari and Aragvi rivers meet.

- Panoramic views over Mtskheta and the two rivers
- Sixth-century monastery
- UNESCO World Heritage Site

Mtskheta & Svetitskhoveli Cathedral

Continue to Mtskheta, Georgia's ancient capital and one of the country's most important historical and spiritual centers. Walk through the old town and visit Svetitskhoveli Cathedral, one of Georgia's most significant churches and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The cathedral is traditionally believed to preserve the Holy Robe of Christ, making this one of the most important pilgrimage sites in Georgia.

- Ancient capital of Georgia
- UNESCO World Heritage Site
- Visit Svetitskhoveli Cathedral
- Explore the historic streets of Mtskheta

Uplistsikhe Cave Town

Finish the day at Uplistsikhe, an ancient rock-hewn town carved directly into the cliffs. Explore its caves, tunnels, halls, and ancient streets while discovering a place that once played an important role in Georgia's history.

- Ancient rock-hewn city dating back to the Late Bronze Age
- Explore caves, tunnels and ancient structures
