Highlights

- Nakerala Pass, a main gateway into Racha
- The Tskhradjvari viewpoint over the valleys
- Mravaldzali and Satsalike, on roads few visitors drive
- Upper Racha's forests and old villages

Day by day

DAY 1

Tbilisi → Tchrebalo

Begin your journey from Tbilisi and head west toward Racha, across the countryside to Tchrebalo, where you will spend the first night. The first day is intentionally relaxed, giving you time to settle into the journey before exploring deeper into the mountains.

Overnight: Tchrebalo.

DAY 2

Nakerala Pass → Tskhradjvari

From Tchrebalo, continue exploring Racha and head toward Nakerala Pass, one of the main gateways into the region. Follow mountain roads through forests and valleys before reaching Tskhradjvari, a high viewpoint over the valleys you have just driven through.

- Nakerala Pass, gateway into Racha
- Tskhradjvari mountain viewpoint
- Mountain forests and valleys
- Panoramic views across Racha

Overnight: Racha.

DAY 3

Mravaldzali → Satsalike

Leave the more familiar routes behind and explore the quieter mountain landscapes around Mravaldzali and Satsalike. Drive through remote roads, forests and mountain valleys toward Mravaldzali, a traditional mountain village, then continue toward Satsalike, where the landscape becomes increasingly wild and remote.

- Mravaldzali village
- Satsalike
- Remote mountain roads and forests
- Panoramic mountain landscapes

Overnight: Upper Racha.

DAY 4

Ghebi → Gona

Drive deeper into Upper Racha toward Ghebi, one of the most remote and atmospheric villages in the region. Continue toward Gona Village, high in the alpine valleys. This is the adventurous heart of the trip: remote roads, small settlements and mountain valleys most visitors never reach.

- Ghebi, one of Racha's most remote villages
- Gona Village and its alpine landscapes
- Remote roads and untouched mountain scenery

Overnight: Upper Racha / Ghebi area.

DAY 5

Upper Racha → Tbilisi

Enjoy one final morning in the mountains before beginning the journey back to Tbilisi. Follow the roads out of Upper Racha, with opportunities to stop at viewpoints and villages along the way before continuing toward Tbilisi.

End of your Racha journey.
