- Qvevri wine, fermented in a clay jar buried in the ground
- Georgian grapes you rarely see on a wine list abroad
- What the toasts at a Georgian supra are for

What You Will Do

STOP 1

Welcome & Introduction

Meet your sommelier (WSET Level 2) in the heart of Tbilisi for an introduction to Georgia's place as the birthplace of wine.

STOP 2

The Qvevri Winemaking Tradition

Learn about the ancient Qvevri winemaking method, recognized by UNESCO as an Intangible Cultural Heritage, and how it still shapes Georgian wine today.

STOP 3

Taste 5 Georgian Wines

Taste five carefully selected Georgian wines made from indigenous grape varieties found nowhere else in the world.

STOP 4

Culture, Hospitality & Tradition

Why wine sits at the centre of every Georgian table, and how the supra and its toasts work: 8,000 years of winemaking in one glass.
